BY THE COURT

Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

The case rests on circumstantial evidence. The first circumstance, which has been alleged against the accused applicant, is what the deceased and the present applicant were seen lastly on 21.5.2005 at Haryana. It is alleged that they came together to Laxman Jhoola. Thereafter the dead body was found in a hotel in which one Tejendra Singh was residing alongwith the other persons on the intervening night of 21.5,.2005. It is contended that there is no complete chain of the circumstances, which may lead to the inference that the applicant committed the offence.
